RAISING LEGENDS – BOY CHILD INITIATIVE

This initiative is aimed at creating awareness about the importance of embracing and supporting a boy child. That boy, upon growing up into a responsible man, father and husband, mentors his generation in the same way.

You are building a community where boys become protectors of their communities not criminals and abusers of their communities. This initiative will help reduce 16 days of activism against women and children because we will be raising responsible young men.

365 GENDER BASED VIOLENCE INTERVENTION PROJECT

Gender-based violence (GBV) is an intense and widespread problem in South Africa, impacting on almost every aspect of life. GBV (which disproportionately affects women and girls) is systemic, and deeply entrenched in institutions, cultures and traditions in South Africa.

GBV can be physical, sexual, emotional, financial or structural, and can be perpetrated by intimate partners, acquaintances, strangers and institutions. Most acts of interpersonal gender-based violence are committed by men against women, and the man perpetrating the violence is often known by the woman, such as a partner or family member.

Men and boys are also victims of GBV, especially emotionally and financially, and those who experience the physical and sexual abuse- hardly report the matters out of fear of being embarrassed and ridiculed. The approach Hope Givers Foundation is taking will look at both genders including the LGBTIQ community, largely affected by GBV.
